

Hi!

やあ

mytutor

How are you?

お元気ですか

LESSON 12: SNACKS and DISHES

WANT

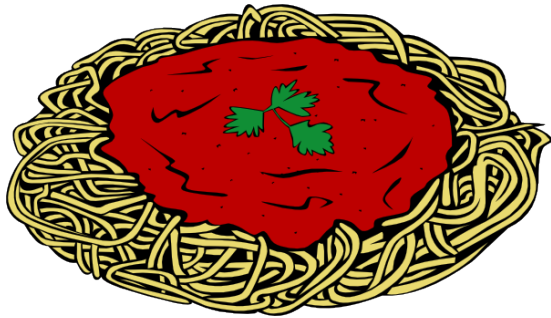

DON'T WANT

LESSON 12: DISHES

sandwich

pasta

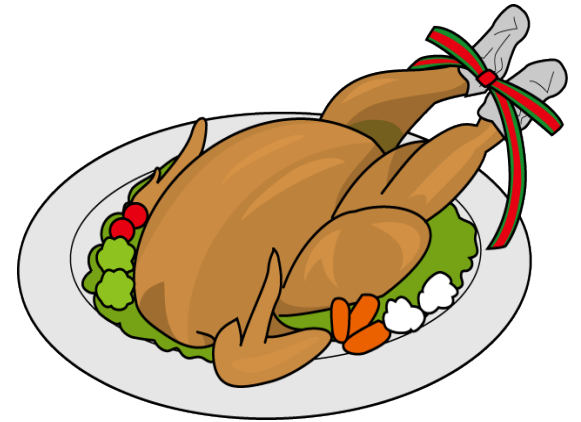

bun

stew

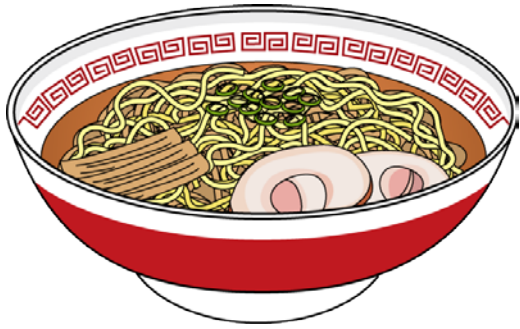

pop corn

roasted chicken

LESSON 12: DISHES

noodles

catsup

cola

beer

juice

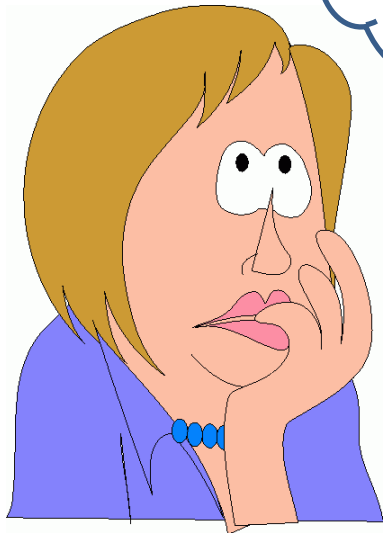

vegetable salad

want some

- is used when a person has the desire for something; crave.

I want some cola.

I want

- refers to the speaker.

They want

- refers to a group of people; many.

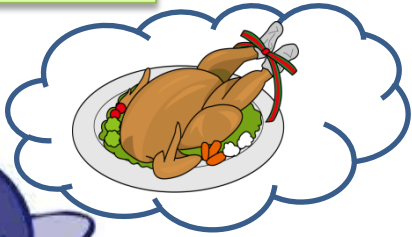

We want

- refers to a group of people including the speaker.

Let's practice.

I want some _____.

They want some _____.

She wants

- refers to a girl,
woman ; female.

He wants

- refers to a boy,
man ; male.

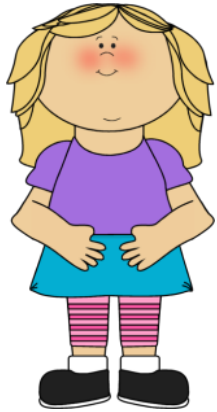

It wants

- refers to an animal.

Let's practice.

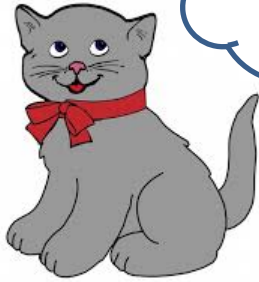

She wants some _____.

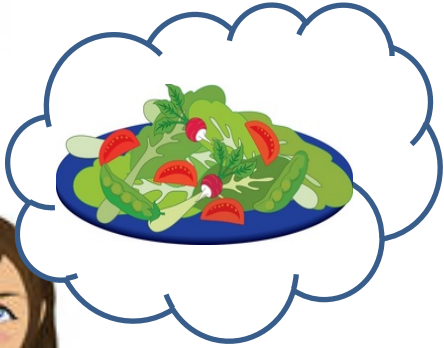

He wants some _____.

Let's practice.

It wants some _____.

Maya wants some _____.

do not want any

- is used when a person has no desire for something; crave.

do not want any

I don't want any

We don't want any

They don't want any

Let's practice.

I don't want any _____.

We don't want any _____.

does not want any

- is used when a person has no desire for something;
crave.

does not want any

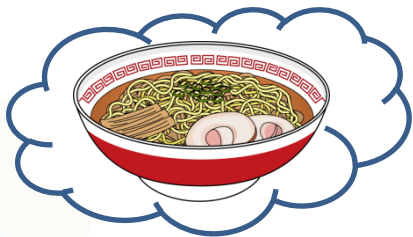

She doesn't want any

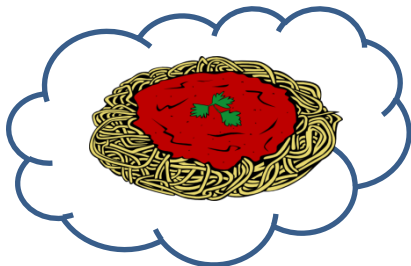

He doesn't want any

It doesn't want any

Let's practice.

She doesn't want any _____.

He doesn't want any _____.

Let's practice.

It doesn't want any _____.

Mr. Baker doesn't want any _____.

Make two sentences for each picture.

1. _____.

2. _____.

1. _____.

2. _____.

Make two sentences for each picture.

1. _____.

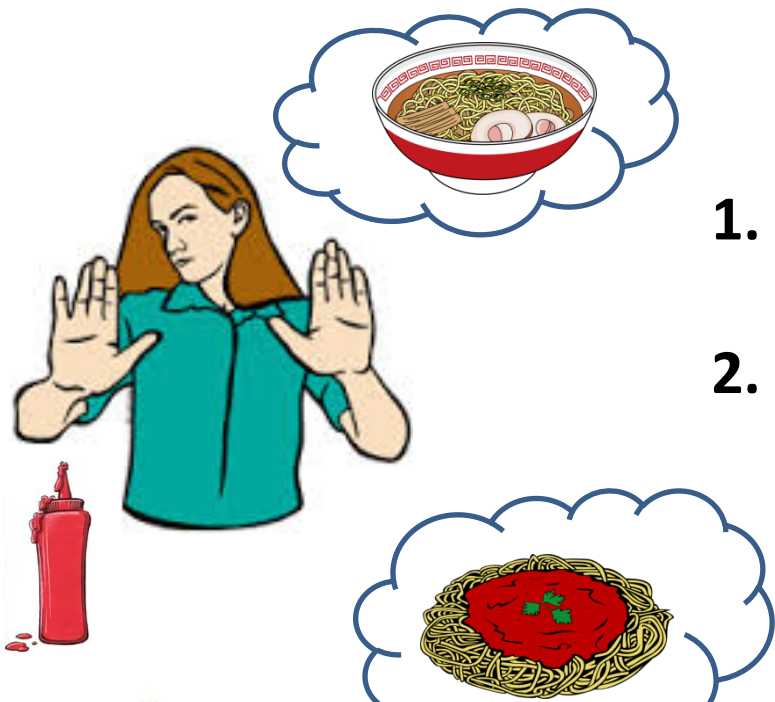

2. _____.

1. _____.

2. _____.

Make two sentences for each picture.

1. _____.

2. _____.

1. _____.

2. _____.

Way to go!

Bye - bye!

